

Notes on Online Application

If you apply online for extension of period of stay or change of status of residence, etc., the "Application in process" stamp will not be affixed to the back of your residence card. Therefore, while applying online, in addition to your residence card, you are required to always carry with you "the reception completion e-mail with information including the application acceptance number."

For more details, click here.